PROCLAMATION - STATE OF EMERGENCY

The undersigned Mayor of the Town of Emerald Isle, North Carolina, hereby makes the following proclamation pursuant to the Town's enabling ordinance and North Carolina General Statute Section 14-288-12.

WHEREAS, a State of Emergency is deemed to exist in the Town of Emerald Isle located at the western end of Bogue Banks in Carteret County, North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, Hurricane Isaias, a dangerous hurricane, is threatening Emerald Isle, and could result in injury or damage to persons or property in the Town of Emerald Isle; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor or his designee is empowered to impose such restrictions and prohibitions appropriate and necessary, including but not limited to curfews, restricting access, the sale of alcoholic beverages, the carrying of firearms and/or any other restrictions and prohibitions necessary for the protection of life and property to meet the exigencies of the State of Emergency.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that an imminent or immediate State of Emergency exists in the Town of Emerald Isle in the form of Hurricane Isaias that has the potential to cause extensive damage to property and injury to persons living or visiting in the Town of Emerald Isle; and

BE IT ALSO PROCLAIMED that this State of Emergency shall continue from the moment this Proclamation is issued until such time as the storm shall end, the threat or danger is over, and it is safe for citizens and other persons to return to normal in the Town of Emerald Isle, as determined by the Mayor or the Board of Commissioners, or the Town Manager, acting under their authority.

This Proclamation is issued this 1st day of August in the year 2020 at 03:00 pm, in Emerald Isle, North Carolina.

Eddie Barber, Mayor

ATTEST:

Rhonda C. Ferebee, Town Clerk
